SERVICE ON TAYLOR.

Notified of the Injunction Served Despite His Military Caution.

DEMOCRATS HOPEFUL

No Intimation Given That Order for Legislature to Meet at London Will Be Rescinded—Goebel's Condition Is Improved.

Frankfort, Feb. 2.—Governor Taylor again this morning ordered nobody to be admitted to the capital grounds under any circumstances. The passes, which heretofore entitled soldiers to go through the lines, were taken up as soon as presented. The object of the new order was to prevent any civilian from serving any legal papers upon him, for it was the intention of the Democrats to secure an injunction restraining Gov. Taylor from interfering in any way with the meetings of the legislature and enjoining him and Lieutenant Governor Marshall from exercising the functions of state officers. No chance whatever of service can be secured on Governor Taylor, as the executive building is circled with sentries and an entire company is posted night and day in the room just outside his office. Every civilian who could possibly be bearer of legal documents will be turned back by the soldiers.

Despite the strict precaution to soldiers to let no one pass, especially an officer, to serve notice upon Mr. Taylor that an injunction had been secured by the Democrats restraining him from interfering with the sessions of the legislature. Alonzo Walker, stenographer of the Democratic attorneys, gained entrance to the grounds and watching a chance he pinned a copy of the notice on the door of the executive mansion which action constitutes a legal notice to Gov. Taylor.

Walker was at once placed under arrest and is now in the guardhouse.

No attempt has been made to enforce the pardon of Douglas Hayes, as Gov. Taylor by refusal to recognize the state courts has placed himself in such a position that he cannot make legal process against the warden. The one thing left for him to do is to liberate Hayes by force and he has evinced no disposition as yet to employ this means.

The Democratic plan to make a formal demand for admission to the legislative halls, was a failure. On Tuesday they were denied admittance by the militia, all of which, with the exception of two companies from Barboursville, will remain here. These two companies have been ordered to London for the meeting of the legislature there next Tuesday.

Governor Taylor gives no intimation of abrogating his proclamation calling for the legislature to assemble in London. He is making all arrangements for the session there.

Many Republicans went home Thursday night, preparing for their trip to London.

"Probably a quorum will not be present at the opening of the session of the legislature," said Representative Yarberry, "but there will be before Tuesday night, of that you can be assured." He spoke with great confidence, and created the impression that appears to be prevalent that the Republicans have something in reserve.

Every effort to discover what the Republicans propose to do is baffled by restriction placed around those in authority to speak or reticence on their part.

An effort to reach Governor Taylor early this morning was met by a statement that Governor Taylor refused to be interrupted: that he was engrossed in giving attention to other matters that affected the welfare of Kentucky; that he had given out no statement for publication, would not now and did not know when he would.

It is announced that a special session of the legislature is being arranged to be held at the Capitol hotel and rumors are out that all those who take part in the meeting will be placed under arrest and taken to London.

Specials from various portions in the state report the tender of troops to support Goebel government. Among them is an offer of Colonel Gaither of Harrodsburg, heretofore a strong anti-Goebel man.

At Richmond, Ky., Dr. Frazee of Morgan's cavalry in a few hours enlisted 50 men and similar offers come from scores of other towns. These offers have been steadily declined.

No adjutant general has been appointed by Goebel because he wishes to avoid anything having the appearance of force.

The attorneys for the Democrats filed with Judge Cantrell in the Franklin county circuit court, a petition asking for an injunction to restrain Governor Taylor from interfering with the meetings of the legislature. The petition covers the full situation, and asks that Taylor and Marshall be restrained from attempting to exercise the power of governor and lieutenant governor. The petition sets up the claim that Goebel is governor and Beckham lieutenant governor.

The petition is signed by all the Democratic members of the legislature. Judge Cantrell granted the request.

ANOTHER ASSASSINATION.

Prominent Democrat Shot and Killed at Boones Fork, Ky.

Middlesboro, Ky. — Hon. Wm. S. Wright, a prominent Democratic politician and ex-member of the legislature from Knott and Letcher counties, was assassinated at Boones Fork. Five shots were fired from ambush from Winchester, two bullets took effect.

THE ACCUSED ASSASSIN.

Constable Harrod Says Whittaker Tendered Money for His Release.

Frankfort, Ky. — Constable Harrod, the officer who took Harland Whittaker, the alleged assassin of Gov. Goebel to Louisville, has given out what is regarded as evidence pointing to the accused man's guilt. Mr. Harrod says Whittaker while enroute to Louisville, told him he had $3,000 at home and $5 in pocket which he would give to be allowed to escape. The officer also says Whittaker contradicts the statement of Captain Davis, in whose company he was found when arrested. Davis insists that Whittaker was sitting in a room adjoining Gov. Taylor's office when the shot that felled Goebel was fired. Constable Harrod claims Whittaker says he was on the third floor of the building.

GOEBEL BETTER.

He Had a Good Night's Rest and Pulse More Regular.

Frankfort, Feb. 2.—Governor Goebel passed a whole comfortable night last night and is in a better condition than on yesterday morning. His respiration has decreased, and is more regular and his pulse slower. Dr. Welsh said:

"We wish it understood that we hold out no hopes for his recovery, but he is at least holding his own."

Frankfort, Feb. 2.—Governor Goebel passed an unfavorable day yesterday although he was fairly comfortable when night came on. He has half a dozen doctors around him, and the reports of his condition vary according to the last physician who leaves his room.

One doctor is confident that he will recover and another generally allows him an hour or two before he breathes his last. His strength is maintained to a great extent by injections. He has had several sinking spells, out of which he was brought with some difficulty. He seemed to rally less readily from each successful collapse, but held his own steadily throughout the afternoon.

His kidneys have practically ceased their functions, and slight symptoms of pneumonia have appeared, but have not as yet become so serious as to cause alarm in themselves.

The doctors as a whole entertain no hopes of his recovery.

At three o'clock this morning his condition was unchanged.

NEED MORE MEN.

Buller Makes a Request for Ninety Thousand More Troops.

London, Feb. 2.—Sensational rumors are current that the militia ballot act will be put in force on Feb. 14, and that General Lord Roberts, commander-in-chief of the British forces in South Africa has cabled for 90,000 additional men, which, it is added, the government has promised to give him, sending 50,000 militia and volunteers and 40,000 militia reserves. It is also said the volunteers will be mobilized forthwith. It is even asserted the cabinet has specially dealt with these matters.

The militia ballot act makes every unmarried man between 18 and 30 years old liable for service for five years.

There is no official news from General Buller's headquarters and the only information that has reached London in any way supporting the report that he has recrossed the Tugela river is found in the Associated Press dispatch announcing Lord Dundonald's reconnaissance, which was taken to indicate a pride to renewed activity.

As the dispatch is three days old and Dundonald found no difficulty in crossing the river, it is not impossible that Buller may have moved in the interim, and public anxiety is again concentrated on the upper Tugela.

Dispatches from elsewhere in South Africa merely tell of desultory shell firing and movements of the patrols, though Cape Town mentions a rumor that French has captured 800 Boers, where and when not being announced.

Plumer's forces around the Boer laager to the southward, seem to dispose of the story that Mafeking has been relieved. On that date the troops captured two Transvaal flags and drove off the Boer outposts before returning to Gaborones.

Smith County Hog.

Tyler, Tex., Feb. 1.—I. A. Denney, a farmer, living near Winona, this county killed a 20-month-old hog last week which weighed when dressed 538 pounds. It is believed this is the largest hog for its age killed in this county for years.

Vote on Constitutional Convention.

Richmond, Feb. 2.—The Democratic legislative caucus has decided to order a vote to be taken on the fourth Tuesday in May next on the question of calling a constitutional convention.

Nomination for President.

Rochester, Feb. 2.—The Socialist-Labor convention has nominated Job Harriman of Los Angeles, for president and Max S. Hayes of Cleveland, for vice president.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 3, 1900

The situation grows brighter every day in Kentucky for the democrats.

Bryan's eastern trip is reported quite successful and is regarded as the opening of the presidential campaign.

The EAGLE hopes the United States will build and fortify the Nicaragua canal without the aid or consent of any other nation on earth.

Every now and then some thoughtless paragrapher stirs up a stink by mentioning embalmed beef. We notice where one Texas newspaper man wants the Boers to load their cannons with it, if the English persist in using lyddite shells, and see if the explosion which follows will not produce either an earthquake or a total eclipse.

Buller lost about two thousand men in his late unsuccessful attempt to relieve the garrison at Ladysmith. Of these and the thousands of others who have been killed in the South African war, probably not one had any hand in bringing it on. The fellows who are responsible for it still have whole skins, while preparations for further slaughter are being made on an enlarged scale.

If England doesn't want the proposed Nicaragua canal fortified she should set Uncle Sam a good example by razing the fortifications of Gibraltar.

SITUATION CHANGED.

A Possible Peaceful Settlement May

PROPOSITIONS MADE.

Two Orders of Governor Taylor Turned Down Awaiting a Decision as
Who Is Governor—Militia
Still at Frankfort.

Frankfort, Feb. 2.—The majority members of the legislature are taking steps to prevent Governor Taylor from interfering with any session they desire to hold in the chambers. Papers have been prepared and an injunction will be asked from Judge Cantrill, of the fiscal court, restraining Governor Taylor from interfering in any way with the proceedings of the legislature. Gov.
Taylor has announced that he would pay no attention to the orders of the fiscal court. The probabilities are that some trouble will ensue.

For the first time since the shooting of Governor Goebel there were yesterday signs of a peaceful settlement. The signs were few and small and they have disappeared, but the hole into which they were withdrawn has been left open and there is a chance they may reappear.

The original proposition looking toward an amicable adjustment came from the Republican side when T. L.
Edelen of Frankfort, one of Governor Taylor's attorneys, appeared at the Capitol hotel to hold a conference with Judge Pryor, Lewis McQuown and Col.
William Scott, the legal advisers of the Democrats.

After a short talk Mr. Edelen declared that Governor Taylor and the Republican party were anxious to avoid anything that might possibly lead to serious trouble, as the present conditions might do if nothing was done to prevent it.
He was assured by the Democratic attorneys that they were as anxious to save any clash between the parties as the Republicans could be.

Mr. Edelen then proposed to submit the case of the rival governors to the Kentucky court of appeals, which he declared, judging by the action of Judge Hazelrigg in swearing in Governor Goebel, would probably decide against Gov.
Taylor. He then wanted the right to submit the matter to the United States supreme court for final settlement. The talk was informal. Mr. Edelen merely stating his position that the opposing attorneys might take the matter under advisement. The lawyers separated with an agreement to meet again.

When they met for the second time Mr. Edelen again submitted his proposition and received the reply that the Democratic attorneys desired to have the matter adjudicated in the state courts. To this Mr. Edelen objected, saying he wished the final settlement to be made in the supreme court at Washington. Mr. Edelen asked for details regarding the seating of Governor Goebel by the joint session.

Mr. Edelen was informed that the proceedings of the session were written in the journal of legislative proceedings and that he would there find all the information which it was possible to give him. Mr. McQuown urged the Republicans to concede the election and seating of Governor Goebel, which Mr. Edelen declined to entertain. Both sides were at the end of their respective ropes.
Nothing more could be said on either side and the lawyers separated. As they left the room Mr. Edelen intimated that it was possible that he might be able to submit another proposition at some later time. He was given to understand he would be met half way and the conference was at an end.

Two direct slaps have been given Gov.
Taylor by public officers who declined to obey his orders. The first came from President Rodman of the Farmers' bank which is a state depository. Some vouchers on the bank were signed by Governor Taylor in favor of some of the militia officers who wanted money for their companies. When they were presented at the bank payment was refused. President Rodman said he did not see how he could pay out the money on orders signed Governor Taylor until he knew for certain who was the actual governor of Kentucky. He has asked an opinion from the attorney of the bank, he said, and when it was received, he would act accordingly. He declared that he would take no chances of paying out money until he was satisfied that he was acting under proper authority.

The second instance promised for a time to have serious consequences and trouble may yet arise from it. Governor Taylor issued a pardon to Douglas Hayes, a convict in the Frankfort penitentiary, who is serving a five-year term for manslaughter, having been sentenced in March, 1899. When the pardon was sent to Warden Lillard he decided that he could not turn the man loose until he was satisfied regarding the legal status of the governorship.
He made no reply to Governor Taylor, but declined to honor the pardon and informed the penitentiary commissioners of his action. They agreed with the warden and the man was held.
The action of Lillard, who is an ardent supporter of Goebel, aroused intense indignation among the Republicans and it was declared that a detachment of soldiers would be sent to the penitentiary to take the man away by force if Warden Lillard persisted in his refusal to release Hayes. This talk was naturally resented by the Democrats and Lillard received open offers of aid in case he should decide to engage in a battle with the soldiers over their right to take out Hayes.

He denied he would resist the troops and said if they released the man the responsibility would rest upon them, not him.

There is very little heard now about London and there seems to be a general feeling among the Democrats and Republicans alike that the next regular meeting of the legislature will be held in the capitol building.

No attention whatever has been paid by the militia to Governor Goebel's orders to return to their homes. It is just as though the order had never been issued. Adjutant General Collier says that no consideration will be given to any orders that may emanate from the Goebel headquarters.

Anonymous letters threatening assassination are going through the mails in considerable numbers. They have been received by the Democratic attorneys, by the Republican attorneys and by every judge of the court of appeals.
They are all practically of one nature, informing the recipient that unless he mends the error of his political ways he will be shot down.

TEXAS LEGISLATURE.

Ex-Senator Mills Will Address the Lawmakers on Tuesday Next.

Austin, Feb. 2.—The pending business in the senate was the committee substitute for Mr. Potter's bill providing for compensating the school fund.
Mr. Miller's amendment striking out the $29,000 appropriation was lost.

An amendment was adopted directing the commissioner of the general land office to issue patents to any one, not corporations, who had purchased lands and settled thereon and paid full value.

Several other amendments were proposed, but none adopted.

The house held a short session but no actual business was transacted.

Ex-Senator Mills will address the legislature on taxation on Tuesday next.

The house committee on taxation and revenue are still hearing complaints against features of the tax bill before the legislature.

Congressional Proceedings.

Washington, Feb. 2.—Representative Joseph Sibley of Pennsylvania, who attained great prominence in the Fifty-fourth congress by his earnest championship of free silver, assailed his Democratic colleagues in the house yesterday for their opposition to expansion in a speech that made the floor and galleries roar.

The remainder of the debate was uninteresting. It touched the questions of mediation in the Transvaal war, lynchings in the south and the jury law in Hawaii.

The feature of the senate was a speech by Mr. Allen of Nebraska on the report of Secretary Gage as to his dealings with the City National bank of New York.

Funeral Train Started.

San Francisco, Feb. 2.—The special train bearing the remains of Major General Henry W. Lawton, Major John
A. Logan and Surgeon Major Armstrong to their last resting places started east Thursday afternoon. The departure of the bodies of the three officers were marked by fitting honors. The funeral train is due in Chicago Monday.

The body of Major Logan will be taken to Youngstown, O. The body of General Lawton will lie in state at Fort Wayne and Indianapolis one day and the train will then continue on to Washington.

Will Erect a Tabernacle.

Louisville, Feb. 2.—The Confederate Veterans' reunion committee, by a unanimous vote, decided to erect a Confederate tabernacle in which the tenth reunion of the United Confederate Veterans will be held, the ground having been given, rent free, by the Illinois Central railroad. The grounds will be leveled and artistically arranged and suitable trees and flowers put in position.

Smallpox in Indiana.

Indianapolis, Feb. 2.—A report has been received here by the state board of health to the effect that there are 200 cases of smallpox in Posey county. New cases were reported from several sections of the state. Dr. Hurdy is receiving responses from the board's appeal.
He believes the people of the state are being awakened to the seriousness of the situation.

Situation at Ladonia.

Ladonia, Tex., Feb. 2.—There are no new cases of smallpox here. The negro who was the first patient is about well, and will be discharged as soon as it is safe for the public. The only other case is in a state of dessication, and there is no cause for alarm on the part of the public.

Mill and Elevator Burned.

Kingfisher, O. T., Feb. 2.—The Kingfisher mill and elevator, with contents was burned. A large quantity of wheat, flour and corn was consumed. The building was wood and burned rapidly.
E. J. Murphy, owner of the property and its business, estimates his loss at $11,000. He was insured for $7500.

Joubert Reported Dead.

Spearmans Camp, Jan. 30.—The natives persist in asserting that Genera Joubert was killed by a shell outside of Ladysmith.

SOME FOLK'S pretences to always undersell the world are rather tiresome. No one has monopoly of Brains and money. It will be a very sorry day for this little town when competition ceases. The fanciful when we sat on Mothers knee listening to Mother Goose stories. But maturer years require more reason. You want something more substantial than Fairy tales. That by our constant attempt is to make the prices on our goods a point to meet the approval of the sensible purchasing public.

Prof. Mally's appointment was made too late last year for early spring work, and what he did was after the season was well advanced.

Didn't Miss Much.

On one of the trolley lines leading to a well-known amusement park they have a system whereby the cars are stopped at certain points to allow uniformed inspectors to count the passengers, presumably as a check on the conductors. Yesterday, among the passengers on the car on which the Saunterer happened to be riding was a well dressed young fellow with a penchant for cracking jokes at other people's expense. When the car stopped for the count-up he had a lot of fun thrusting jibes in the inspector, the conductor and the trolley company people in general. Finally, just as the car was about to resume its journey, he called out: "Say, Mister Inspector, you missed me."

The inspector turned and looked the young fellow over very carefully.

"Humph!" he retorted, "I guess the company can stand it. I did not miss much."

Then everybody laughed, the trolley company and the motorman turned on the current and the car sped onward.

Nothing Unusual.

A correspondent who writes to the New York Sun to inquire if it is true that David B. Henderson, the prospective speaker of the next house of representatives, is a Scotchman, and if it is not an unusual thing for a Scotchman to take a very active part in political affairs in the United States, is informed that he is and it is not. Mr. Henderson was born in Old Deer in 1840. Iowa's present representative in President McKinley's cabinet, James Wilson, secretary of agriculture, was born in Ayrshire, Scotland, in 1835. Congressmen Meekison of Ohio and Spaulding of Michigan were born in Scotland, and Scotchmen generally have taken an honorable part in American public affairs. It was of a Scotch United States senator, however, that Senator Hoar, alluding to his talkativeness, said: "He reads his mind while he speaks."

Following the Ball.

"A splendid stroke! Did you follow the ball, Caddie?"

"No, sir, but I think that gentleman with the red coat can tell you where it struck. I see him feeling on his head."

An Exception.

"It is better to laugh than to cry," said the young and innocent girl, brightly.

"Not if you are trying to manage a husband," said the woman.

NARROW ESCAPE.

Chief Sweeney Overcome in a Burning Building at Chicago.

Chicago, Feb. 2.—Fire Chief Sweeney had a narrow escape from death early this morning in the burning factory of the Rauch Furniture Manufacturing company. The veteran head of the department was overcome by smoke and fell unconscious in the rear of the office on first floor. Members of the Engine Company No. 3 bore their chief from the building just in time to save his life.

The chief had gone into the building alone and it was several minutes before his men knew of his peril. The structure, which is four stories high and covers a large area, was burning fiercely from the second floor, where the fire originated, to the roof, but the blaze had not penetrated downward to the first floor when the chief arrived, in response to the alarm that was turned in soon after the fire was discovered.

While waiting for the summoned reinforcements to arrive the chief seized an axe and broke in the front door of the factory. He went within almost unnoticed. Some time elapsed and when his absence was noted a number of firemen went in search of him. The chief's face had a deathly pallor, the eyes were closing, his breath was coming faintly and his arms hung down by his side when he was carried into the street. There was excitement and consternation among the firemen.

Never before had the veteran been overcome and never had there been necessity for rescue of him by his own men. The group that gathered about him felt sure that some serious injury had been sustained by Chief Sweeney, but an examination disclosed that smoke alone had caused him to lose consciousness.

After a few minutes the unconscious chief was partially revived. He was then removed to a nearby engine house. A physician, who was called, said his condition was not serious. This is the first time in over half a century of fire fighting that he had been compelled to retreat before his foe. Lately Chief Sweeney has been subjected to fainting spells and it is supposed that he was seized with one of these when the cloud of smoke settled down on him.

The damage to the Rauch Manufacturing company will reach $75,000.

VIOLATION OF LAW.

Bankers Could Not Have Imitations of Gold Pieces at Their Dinner.

New York, Feb. 2.—Group eight, of the State Banker's association at their annual dinner at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel next Tuesday night, were to have eaten their ices out of spectacles indicative of the banker's loyalty to the gold standard. The ices were to have been inclosed in pasteboard boxes in imitation of a pile of eight huge gold coins with milled edges. The top coin represented the reverse of the 10 dollar gold piece much enlarged and bearing the imprint of the San Francisco mint. The ordinary motto, "In God We Trust" had been changed to read "In Gold We Trust." The size of the imitation coin was about two-thirds larger than a double eagle.

The order was placed with a New York firm, who prepared a plaster cast of the cover of the box and made a model, which was submitted to a representative of the government for his opinion regarding its validity. He at once declared it a violation of chapter 127 of the laws of 1891, which prohibits any person from making "any token, device, print or impression, whether metals or its compounds or if any other substance in likeness, similitude as to design, color or the inscription thereon, of any of the coins of the United States."

Chief Hazen was notified and he seized the cast and model.

Fire at Little Rock.

St. Louis, Feb. 2.—A special to The Post Dispatch from Little Rock, Ark., says a loss of $150,000 was caused by fire that destroyed the store of the Dickinson Arms company and partially destroyed eight smaller business buildings. A quantity of dynamite and giant powder in the building occupied by Dickinson Arms company exploded with tremendous force, breaking at least $15,000 worth of window glass throughout the city.

Farmer Assassinated.

Mansfield, Tex., Feb. 2.—James A. Jarmon, a farmer, aged about 40 years, was called to the front door of his residence early Wednesday evening and shot to death by an unknown person. The assassin knocked at the front door of the Jarmon home and the dead man responded. He had no more than opened the door than he was fired on. Three shots were fired, two of the bullets taking effect in the region of the heart. No clew.

Fire at Youngstown.

Youngstown, O., Feb. 2.—Fire here burned the McElroy Furniture company's store, extended to J. M. Euwer & Sons' store, dry goods, and to adjoining block occupied G. M. McKelvey & Co. Total loss will aggregate between $400,000 and $500,000.

To Protect Themselves.

Chattanooga, Feb. 2.—The merchants and manufacturers of this city have formed an association to protect themselves against people taking advantage of the bankruptcy laws and removing goods and chattels from the state.

Two Lives Lost.

St. Louis, Feb. 2.—Sister Stanislaus, a teacher, and Mary Foley, a pupil, lost their lives in a fire which destroyed a parochial school here.

FEDERAL AID ASKED.

Governor Taylor Appeals to the President to Help Him Out.

M'KINLEY UNDECIDED

The President Will Submit the Request to the Cabinet—Taylor Asks That He Be Recognized as the Legal Governor.

Washington, Feb. 2.—President McKinley has received a long message from Governor W. S. Taylor of Kentucky. Governor Taylor recites at length the situation in Kentucky, declares he considers himself the legally elected executive of the state and asserts that the condition of affairs at the present time is most critical. He says that a riot may occur at any time which will cause bloodshed. Governor Taylor says he is doubtful of his power to control the situation and appeals to the president to end the matter and secure peace in the state by recognizing him as the governor of Kentucky. The appeal is very earnest and the aid of the administration is urgently requested.

Governor Taylor's communication to President McKinley is in its nature a memorial. It goes at great length into the situation in Kentucky in making an explanation of conditions there. While definite and absolute information on this point is not obtainable, there is reason to believe that a specific request for the immediate request of Federal troops is not made. No action of any kind has been taken on Governor Taylor's memorial and it can be positively stated that no decision whatever with reference to it had been reached.

Today is the regular day for cabinet meetings and a careful consideration of the affair will be taken by the president and his advisers of the course for the administration to take. No conclusion will be reached save with great deliberation and after the most careful discussion of the Kentucky situation in all its aspects as it affects the Federal government. The president will go very slow in the matter in the hope that matters in the state itself will so shape matters as to relieve the administration of the necessity of any action. At the same time there are contingencies which may compel the president to move. The tension in Kentucky is intense and its very intensity is felt here to be likely to lead to some peaceful solution of the question. Action by the Federal government at this time, it is feared, might further rouse rather than smooth the angry passions that have prevented an adjustment so far.

The president is in communication with Governor Taylor and it is possible that some statement regarding their correspondence may be made public later. This will depend largely whether such a statement would tend in President McKinley's opinion to allay public excitement.

For the present no information at all is to be had from the White House as to affairs in Kentucky. The memorial from Governor Taylor could not be obtained at the White House, where its receipt would not even be admitted. However, it can be said definitely that the president has been appealed to in a long memorial by Governor Taylor and as already stated, that he has reached no conclusion on the subject of the said memorial.

CALL ON THE PRESIDENT.

Kentuckians at Washington Ask Him to Not Interfere.

Washington, Feb. 2.—The Kentucky delegation, consisting of Senator Elect Blackburn, Representatives Rhea, Allen, Smith and Gilbert and ex-Representative Thompson, called on President McKinley to protest against Federal interference in that state. Senator Lindsay was also there, but did not come with the other gentlemen. The Kentuckians said Federal interference in Kentucky would be sure to result in serious trouble, as the first movement of the troops would cause an uprising that would not be easily quelled. They expressed the opinion that the difficulties would be adjusted without further violence if the people of Kentucky would be allowed to settle the matter themselves. After leaving the president, Senator Blackburn said the interview was altogether pleasant and satisfactory.

REFUSED TO INTERFERE.

The President Will Not Take Issue with the Muddle in Kentucky.

Washington, Feb. 2.—After the cabinet meeting this morning the following statement was made:

"The president has decided that no cause has yet arisen to justify the intervention of the national government in Kentucky, and has so informed the governor."

Some significance may be attached to use of the word "governor," in this statement, inasmuch as the reply was directed to Taylor.

Killed His Brother.

Deming, N. M., Feb. 2.—Joe W. Taylor, a prominent cattle raiser of this section, shot and instantly killed his brother, James W., at their ranch 15 miles from Deming. The brothers had a misunderstanding over business matters. Joe Taylor surrendered to the officers here.
